

Bullying, Mobbing, Violence

Are you hacking away at the branches or getting to the root?

Bullying and Violence are outcomes. Mobbing is the process that gets you there. Insight and awareness can create a healthier climate in your school and community. Dignity and Respect must be extended to everyone, without exception.

Contact Author and Expert, Gail Pursell Elliott “The Dignity and Respect Lady” to help your school and community. Gail has been interviewed on ABC World News Now and MSNBC’s Deborah Norville Tonight

Schools are floundering in a sea of information with regard to the issue of school mobbing/bullying behavior. In the midst of all this information, the underlying causes of the antagonist’s actions are sadly ignored. This unique book addresses the roots of these behaviors, exploring why people, in particular children, take part in mobbing situations. The author ultimately explores how the answer to this difficult topic lies in teaching children dignity and respect for themselves and all people. Written with compassion and insight in a style accessible to all readers, this book is a must read for practicing counselors, school administrators, teachers, parents, and students.

"Were you ever bullied, ganged up on, or picked on as a kid back in school? Sure, we all were. But today such attacks are taken a bit more seriously -- and rightly so, for they can easily turn deadly. As Gail states, "Mobbing is terrorism." The book deals with the issue from the perspective of all parties concerned -- the victim, the parents, the school staff, and even the perpetrator -- and it explains what each must do to resolve the situation." - Mensa Bulletin book review

"This book is a gem. There is very little question left that mobbing in schools is at the heart of the violence problem. Readers will see mobbing in their own lives, and once that is done the teaching will easily follow."

-Tom Golden, LCSW, author Swallowed By A Snake: The Gift of the Masculine Side of Healing

"School Mobbing and Emotional Abuse addresses a national need faced by every child in school. It is very possible that a teacher who utilizes this material may save a child from both physical as well as psychological abuse and may ultimately save a child’s life. This material is that powerful and that important."- Peter D. Blauvelt, President and CEO, National Alliance for Safe Schools

"This book is a forceful reminder that it is the adult in the school setting who must take deliberate steps to stop bullying and prevent it, and who must declare with firm resolve, “Dignity and Respect for all – no exceptions!”” - Frances M. Carothers, Ed. D., English Department Supervisor, Cumberland Valley School District, Pennsylvania

School Mobbing and Emotional Abuse:

See It – Stop It – Prevent It with Dignity and Respect

Author: Gail Pursell Elliott, “The Dignity and Respect Lady”

www.innovations-training.com gail@innovations-training.com 515-388-9600

Publisher: Brunner-Routledge ISBN 0 415 94551 8 $19.95 USD

Available through your local bookstore or online at all major bookseller websites.